We, the community of Greenwich, Connecticut recognize:

- ... the considerable personal commitment that military servicemen and women and their families are making every day to protect our nation, to permit peace, and to care for those who are in peril throughout the world;
- ... the crucial role of families, who enable military personnel to meet these commitments;
- ... the strength of a community is founded on shared burdens, collaborative spirit, and a genuine willingness to help each other;

We, the community of Greenwich, Connecticut are committed to:

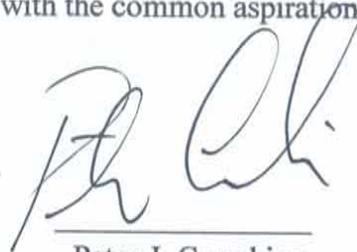

- ... building partnerships among individuals, employers, government agencies, nonprofit care-giving enterprises, non-profit foundations, citizen affinity groups, and compassionate individuals, all dedicated to the common shared goal of supporting military families and assisting military servicemen and women who have returned to our community with special needs;
- ... utilizing these new partnerships in wise and creative ways with the common aspiration of giving support to our military families and veterans.
